GENEALOGY & HISTORY WORKSHOP

"Digging Up Secrets"

at the Forkland
Community Center
Lincoln Museum

forklandlincolnmuseum.org
in Southwest Boyle County on KY 37, 30 minutes from Danville or Lebanon

Saturday, May 14, 2016
8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

This Workshop will focus on how to use information contained in documents that are often overlooked by genealogists and historians, such as store ledgers, church and funeral records, journals, and diaries. Two speakers in the morning will provide an overview of such documents. In the afternoon, there will be three different hands-on sessions, each given three times so everyone can participate in all three. These sessions will enable attendees to practice "digging up secrets" found in actual historical documents archived in the Lincoln Museum's collections.

Attendance is limited to 50, and preregistration is required by May 9. For additional information, visit forklandlincolnmuseum.org, call Shirley Sheperson, 859-936-2061, or Carolyn Crabtree, 859-516-2028, or e-mail Carolyn at ctree1492@ctreeacres.com.

DIRECTIONS TO FORKLAND COMMUNITY CENTER: From Danville, go south on US 127 to the traffic light at Junction City and turn right onto KY 300, then just after the railroad tracks turn left onto KY 37 and stay on KY 37 all the way (about 10 miles) to the Community Center (on the right). From Lebanon, go east on US 68, turn right on KY 243 (Gravel Switch turnoff), then stay on KY 243 until KY 243 turns right over a bridge, where you should go straight on KY 37; the Community Center is about three miles (on the left). The GPS Coordinates for the Forkland Community Center are: 37.551187, -84.984967.
